MGM Wireless appoints accomplished SMS entrepreneur and high business achiever to Board

Adelaide-based school services company MGM Wireless is pleased to announce the appointment of Shaun Collopy – former co-founder and second largest shareholder of highly successful SMS specialist Mobile Messenger as non-executive Director.

Welcoming Mr Collopy to the board, MGM Wireless CEO and co-founder Mr Mark Fortunatow said: “Shaun brings to MGM significant, relevant commercial and technical expertise to the board. He is a recognised world expert in the commercialisation of mobile messaging and billing technology, and will assist MGM Wireless in developing and refining our business strategies”.

Mr. Collopy's most recent success was founder of Australian SMS communications provider Sol Mobile, which he grew and then merged into Mobile Messenger in 2005. Mr. Collopy and his Partner sold a majority stake in Mobile Messenger to prestigious U.S. private equity firm SilverLake and a consortium of other private equity investors in October 2007 at a valuation in excess of USD $200 m.

Mr. Collopy played a key role in building Mobile Messenger into a very profitable company with revenues of $150m+, 150+staff, offices in Australia and the USA, and operations in 5 countries. (Exact Revenue & Profit Figures are confidential due to Mobile Messenger being a private company.)

‘MGM Wireless has done a really impressive job in building a leading market position in Australia in a new and growing market niche. I have observed their tremendous growth in Australia. I look forward to adding my experience to the current board and team to refine the MGM business model, and help grow the company revenues further into new services and markets’.

Originally from Adelaide, Mr. Collopy has been based in the US for 3 years where he has gained valuable experience with consumer habits with mobile phone services.

As part of his remuneration (Base Director's Fee - $18,000pa), the Company has agreed to issue the following ordinary shares and unlisted options to Mr Collopy, subject to shareholder approval:

- 1,000,000 ordinary fully paid shares; and
- 2,000,000 unlisted options exercisable at 2 cents each on or before 15 April 2012.

These securities will be issued subject to voluntary escrow for a period of 12 months.

An Appendix 3X – Initial Director's Interest Notice is attached.

Shaun Collopy

In 2000, Mr Collopy founded Sofwrite Technologies which in less than 2 years grew to a profitable business with revenues of $2.5m+.

In Aug 2001, he sold Sofwrite to Australian Publicly Listed Company, Amnet IT, for approx $1.2m where he worked as General Manager – IT Services which became part of Amcom Communications, listed on the ASX (ASX.AMM).

In Oct 2003 he negotiated a management buyout of the SMS (Mobile) business/ assets of Amcom to form Sol Mobile, which he grew to a profitable company with $15m+ annual revenue. In Feb 2005 Mr. Collopy merged Sol Mobile with Mobile Messenger where he was the 2nd largest shareholder, and was instrumental in Mobile Messenger's success.

Mr. Collopy was a key driver in growing Mobile Messenger into a profitable company with revenues of $150m+, 150+staff, offices in 2 countries, and operations in 5 countries. (Exact Revenue & Profit Figures are confidential due to Mobile Messenger being a private company).

Both Sol Mobile and Mobile Messenger did not raise any outside capital and were EBITDA positive from day one.

In Oct 2007 he and his Partner sold a majority stake to the prestigious private equity firm – SilverLake (www.SilverLake.com).

At the time of sale Mobile Messenger had a valuation in excess of $200m. SilverLake led the transaction process as the major investor, including additional investments from Trinity Ventures (<http://www.trinityventures.com/>) and Montgomery & Co. (<http://www.monty.com/>).

Mobile Messenger continues to grow achieving record revenue and profit in the first quarter of 2009.

Mr Collopy is currently contributing ongoing support to Mobile Messenger (Board Member and Mergers and Acquisition Strategic Committee).

Originally from Adelaide – where his family still reside, Mr Collopy is currently based in the US.
